

Emancipation Celebrations 2020

This year, the ESCTT (Emancipation Support Committee of TT) celebrated the 50th anniversary of the Black Power Movement and “it was an extremely important year for us because we thought we did make some gains following the revolution.

Saturday, July 25

- A virtual trade exhibition

Friday, July 31

- A virtual youth reggae concert in tribute to local reggae star Taurean “Zion Starr” Taylor who died last year.

Saturday August 1

- A tribute to the triumph over enslavement and will be placed in front of the Treasury Building, Independence Square, Port of Spain.
- The calypso concert will feature songs in commemoration of the 1970 Black Power Revolution.
- There will also be educational programmes on state-owned television, TTT.
- From 7 pm there will be a virtual flambeau procession and people will be asked to do the same in their respective communities.

Sunday August 2

- A virtual jazz and pan concert featuring Vaughnette Bigford and her band, pannist Dane Gulston, and Panorama champions, Desperadoes.